Read each sentence carefully. Think of how the first pair of things relate to each other. Choose a word to complete the second pair in such a way that the relationship between the second pair is the same as the first.

For example,

Shoes are to feet as hat is to.....head.

The relationship between shoes and feet is, a shoe covers the feet. So when searching for a word to go with 'hat', you need to see what does the hat cover. It covers the head.
